CORRESPONDENT'S VIEW OF GERMAN SOCIALIST RULE

Democracy Supplanted by Dictatorship of Factory Workers and Soldiers," Says Dosch-Fleuret.

ASSERTS BOLSHEVISM NOW IS IN CONTROL

"It Is Lenin's Program," Is Writer's Contention, and He Declares That a Distinct Minority Now Rules.

By ARNO DOSCH FLEURET, Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

COPENHAGEN, Wednesday, Nov. 13.—By yielding to the demands of the Independent Socialists, the moderate Socialists in Germany have permitted the destruction of democracy and established a dictatorship of organized factory workers supported by soldiers.

Germany now has a government composed exclusively of Socialists, responsible to Soviets chosen by organized workers, and in which the remainder of the population has no voice. It is Lenin's program and has consciously a form of Bolshevism as the present government. It does not pretend to represent the whole people but has as its purpose a workers' dictatorship to put into action active Socialism.

The fact that all the Socialists combined in Germany are not a majority of its population is a matter of indifference. It is exactly the same doctrinaire which established the Bolshevik dictatorship in Russia. It takes the position that the only way ever to establish Socialism is by dictatorship.

Warned by Vorwarts. The quick capitulation of the Moderate Socialists was the only inexplicable feature. The editors of Vorwarts, who were leaders among the moderates, said only a few days ago that the moderates must not yield to Independents and "experiment on the living body of society." But evidently they have been rushed off their feet in the stormy Soldiers' and Workers' Council meetings in Berlin, without having had the slightest chance to place the matter before the whole body of German Socialists.

The tactics of the German Bolsheviks are typical of the Russian Bolsheviks. Although in the minority, they are the most violent portion and are ready to bolt. When Lenin tried the same tactics a year ago last June the first all-Russian Soviet belatedly had to return. This shows how far Bolshevik thought has gone since that time. The German Independents, who have a Bolshevik program, needed only three days to accomplish what it took the Russian Bolsheviks six months to do.

There are three important facts about the new Government: First, there are only Socialist members; second, it is responsible only to the Soviets; third, the National Constitutional assembly has been indefinitely postponed.

According to the Bolshevik program, the National Assembly can never be held, as the Bolsheviks do not admit anyone that has any political rights except the organized workers. The Soviets also are organized on the same loose basis as in Russia.

Theory of Representation. Nominally each thousand workers has the right to appoint one representative to the Soviet, but the chance of political juggling is introduced by granting members to smaller bodies of workers and disabled soldiers, etc.

Of course, workers disbanding at the front and beginning to fill other cities will dominate the Soviets and become the dictators of Germany. Germany has gone in a fortnight from the dictatorship of the Kaiser to the dictatorship of the proletariat, a process which took Russia eight months.

Chancellor Ebert's sensational proclamation appears to throw Germany directly into the arms of Bolshevism and assumes a different aspect after the reading of today's

CABARETS AND DANCING TO BE PERMITTED TONIGHT

Influenza Ban, Which Was to Continue Until Monday, Is Lifted by Starkloff.

Health Commissioner Starkloff today decided to lift the influenza ban on cabarets, dinner dances and public dance halls, and ruled that these adjuncts of the night life of the city might resume operation tonight. In a former ruling the ban on them had been left in effect until next Monday.

In granting permission to reopen these activities tonight, the Commissioner made it clear that each hotel, cafe or dance hall would be judged according to its readiness to comply with health regulations, and he reserved the right to close any place of this character if there should be over-crowding or lack of proper sanitation and ventilation. After a consultation with Dr. James Stewart, chief physician for the Board of Education, Dr. Starkloff approved stringent precautionary measures to prevent the spread of influenza in the public schools.

It was ruled that no person, whether principal, teacher, pupil or janitor, should be permitted to enter a public school building while any member of his household had influenza. This prohibition is to continue until the placard is taken down. This is a more severe restriction than is made in cases of diphtheria and scarlet fever, in which children of an affected family may go to school if they temporarily reside away from home to avoid contagion. Such absence from home will not be recognized as lifting the influenza ban.

In the case of apartment houses and flats the exclusion will extend, not to the whole building, but only to the particular apartments where the disease is under treatment.

WILHELM KICKED HEELS AN HOUR AT DUTCH FRONTIER

Former All Highest Had to Wait Until Customs Officials Were Ready to Let Him Cross Border.

HE PASSED THE TIME TALKING TO PEASANTS

Discussed Volubly About His Estates, Farms and Horses—Spoke of German Army as "My Soldiers."

By the Associated Press. COPENHAGEN, Wednesday, Nov. 13.—Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, according to the Frankfort Gazette, wished to extend hospitality to the former German Emperor while he remained in Holland. However, the newspaper adds, as Holland itself fears the coming days, it was found desirable that William Hohenzollern should live as a private individual.

By the Associated Press. AMSTERDAM, Wednesday, Nov. 13.—William Hohenzollern, who, as German Emperor, never liked to be kept waiting, had to remain Sunday in what amounted to temporary arrest in a railway car at a small way-side station until word came from the Hague permitting him to proceed on his way and telling him where to go. The former Emperor, according to a contributor to a Maastricht newspaper, felt his position keenly and kept himself hidden in a railway car throughout his stay at the station.

The Nieuwe Rotterdam Courant published the following account of the former German Kaiser's entry into Holland: At about 6 o'clock, Sunday morning, nine automobiles, carrying armed officers, drew up at the Dutch frontier, near Eysden. A Dutch sentry, whose orders were to bar the passage of armed persons, refused to let them pass. He told the party they would have to wait until the customs offices opened. A customs official, strolling up, added the information that the office would open at 7 o'clock.

A member of the group stepped forward with the announcement that he was the German Kaiser. This staggering information, had no effect upon the Dutch sentry, who replied that the Kaiser could not pass until he had orders to that effect from his commanding officer. The customs official added that the party must wait until 7 and that the customs office would not open a moment earlier.

And so the party waited, the members kicking their heels at the delay. The former Kaiser whined away his time talking to some peasant on the border.

SOCIETY WANTS TO ERECT STATUE OF WILSON IN LONDON

New Anglo-American Body to Ask Permission of President to Put Shaft With Those of Washington and Lincoln.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Nov. 14.—The newly formed Anglo-American Society, of which the Duke of Connaught is president, has decided to ask President Wilson to honor that society by allowing it to erect his statue in London simultaneously with the statues of Washington and Lincoln, which have already been offered by the United States.

The statue of the President, if erected, will be made by a distinguished sculptor. The resolution passed by the society stated that the statue would be "a memorial to represent Wilson's distinguished services to humanity in the time of the great war."

DECORATIONS AND THANKS FROM THE PRESIDENT GIVEN ALSO TO PETAIN AND JOFFRE

Allied Generalissimo, Expressing Gratitude, Recalls Day U. S. Commander Offered America's Army and Resources.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, Nov. 14.—Messages of congratulation and gratitude from President Wilson and the American people were presented to Marshal Foch, Marshal Joffre and Gen. Pershing yesterday by Gen. Pershing, who also decorated the three French military leaders with the American Distinguished Service Medal.

Gen. Pershing today went to British main headquarters, where he will present the Distinguished Service Medal to Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig.

SENLEIS, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the American forces in France, today conferred upon Marshal Foch, the Commander in Chief of the allied armies, the American Distinguished Service Medal.

Accompanying Gen. Pershing to Gen. Pershing's headquarters was an English woman, Mrs. Douglas Haig, who was an American Distinguished Service Medal.

A guard of honor was drawn up at headquarters and trumpeters blew fanfare as Marshal Foch, with Gen. Pershing on his right, took positions a few paces in front of the guard.

Gen. Pershing, addressing the Generalissimo, said:

"The Congress of the United States has created this medal to be conferred upon those who have rendered distinguished service to our country. President Wilson has directed me to present to you the first of these medals, in the name of the United States Government and the American army, as an expression of their admiration and their confidence. It is a token of the gratitude of the American people for your achievements and for the great services you have rendered to our army."

Gen. Pershing then pinned the medal on Marshal Foch's breast and the two stood with their hands clasped as the trumpet sounded once more.

In accepting the decoration, Marshal Foch said:

"I will wear this medal with pleasure and pride. In days of triumph as well as in days of critical hours, I will never forget the tragic day last March when Gen. Pershing put at my disposal the resources of the American army."

GERMANY'S PROTEST ON SOME TERMS

Complained of Shortness of Delay Fixed for Evacuation and Handing Over Transport.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—A declaration sent to the French Government early this week by the German plenipotentiaries who went to Marshal Foch's headquarters to sign the armistice between the allies and Germany has been published here. It protests against some features of the terms agreed to by the Germans and to which they objected verbally at their first meeting with Marshal Foch. The declaration reads:

"The German Government will naturally make every effort to aid in the carrying out of the obligations imposed upon it. Its plenipotentiaries recognize that on certain points a conciliatory spirit has been shown toward their suggestions. They can, consequently, consider the observations which they submitted on Nov. 9, referring to conditions of the armistice and the reply they received on Nov. 10, as forming an integral part of the complete convention.

"They cannot, however, permit any doubt to exist on the fact that the shortness of the delay fixed for evacuation and the handing over of indispensable means of transport threatens to provoke a state of affairs which, without the German Government and people being at fault, may render the execution of the armistice impossible. The plenipotentiaries further consider it their duty referring to their reiterated verbal and written declarations, to state once more with the utmost energy that the execution of this convention must throw the German people into anarchy and famine.

"After the public manifestations which preceded the laying down of the armistice, conditions might have been expected which, while giving our adversaries full military security, would have put an end to the sufferings of noncombatant women and children. The German people, which, for 50 months, has held out against a world of enemies, will

King George's Message of Thanks to President, and Wilson's Reply

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 14 (British Wireless Service). KING GEORGE, on the signing of the armistice, sent a message of congratulation to President Wilson and thanks to the people of the United States for their aid in the war. President Wilson replied, expressing warm appreciation.

The King's message follows:

At this moment of universal gladness I send you, Mr. President, and the people of your great republic, a message of congratulation and deep thanks in my own name and that of the people of this empire.

It is, indeed, a matter of solemn thanksgiving that the peoples of our two countries, akin in spirit as in speech, should today be united in this greatest of democracy's achievements. I thank you and the people of the United States for the high and noble part which you have played in this glorious chapter of history and freedom.

President Wilson's cablegram to King George follows:

Your generous and gracious message is most warmly appreciated, and you may rest assured that our hearts on this side of the Atlantic are the more completely filled with joy and satisfaction because we know the great partnership of interests and of sentiments to which we belong.

We are happy to be associated in this time of triumph with the Government and people upon whom we are so sure we can count for co-operation in the delicate and difficult tasks which remain to be performed in order that the purposes of the war may be realized and established in the reign of equitable justice and lasting peace.

maintain its liberty and unity despite every violence."

Bavarian Complaint on the Armistice Terms.

BASEL, Wednesday, Nov. 13.—Declaring that the new democratic state of Bavaria is not responsible for the faults of the old regime in Germany, a manifesto has been sent from Munich to the new Federal Government of Germany, asking that complaint over the conditions of the armistice be sent to the Entente Powers. It is said that the terms agreed to by Germany in stopping hostilities are of such a nature as to prevent rapid re-establishment of order in Bavaria.

A Basel dispatch earlier in the week reported that the Bavarian Government had sent a protest to President Wilson complaining that the terms of the armistice were burdensome to that part of Germany and that the new Government was in no way to blame for the offenses of the militarists who formerly ruled Germany.

CORRESPONDENT'S VIEW OF GERMAN SOCIALIST RULE

Vorwärts and the Hamburg Fremdenblatt. Three significant events have occurred: Dr. Karl Liebknecht was hooted by soldiers in the Circus Busch; the Socialist Leadership Council, and in the Reichstag building the printers refused to work for the Spartacus group, the branch of German Socialists nearest to the Bolsheviks.

Slogan of the Soldiers. The soldiers attacking Liebknecht in the Circus Busch said the password is "Unity and no civil war." Vorwärts also comments upon the soldiers' demand for orderliness and order, and that only the whole German people can decide. Practical sense speaks for peace, food and orderly demobilization.

Vorwärts, which is continuously contemptuous, ignores the real cause of the conflict over the six points yielded by the Moderates to the Independents, which, followed by Ebert's statement, looks like a complete capitulation by the Moderates. This ignoring seems intentional, to avoid the whole question and give a semblance to yield gracefully and to unite behind Ebert to steady the government amid the chaos and weather the storm; and then, later, to reveal the real numerical weakness of the Bolsheviks and not give the violent elements an opportunity now to ruin all chances to hold the national assembly. If this is the plan the Moderates still must reckon with the army's sentiments, but the bulk of the army moderates seem sure, though they fear moderate by deserters stampeding the Soviets.

SCHOOLS REOPEN; SESSIONS LENGTHENED 25 MINUTES DAILY

Time Lost Because of Influenza Ban Will Be Entirely Made Up.

When the public schools reopened this morning, after having been closed since Oct. 9 on account of the influenza ban, the principals found upon their desks an order from Superintendent of Instruction Withers informing them of a new school-day schedule, increasing the length of daily sessions by 25 minutes in order to make up for the time lost during the 26½ days that the schools were closed.

Twenty-five minutes will be added to each school day for the 147 remaining days of the present term. This will be equivalent to approximately 15 days. The other 11 days are to be made up by a reorganization of the methods of instruction and more intensive effort, including group exercises, socialized recitation and condensed internships between students.

The reopening of the public schools affected about 91,000 pupils. The parochial schools, which have an attendance of about 25,000, also reopened today.

DUTCH LET THE KAISER KICK HEELS HOUR AT FRONTIER

lookers. Punctually at 7 o'clock the party went through the formalities of internment.

The former Kaiser, who for nearly a month had been in Belgium, slept every night for the past two weeks in his imperial train. The train apparently was equipped with wireless apparatus.

While strolling about the Eysden station platform, according to another correspondent, the former Kaiser talked volubly about his country estates, farms and horses. He told how he taught the people to save by presenting every child born on his estates with a savings bank book bearing a royal guarantee.

He jestingly remarked to a Dutch Captain that a Captain's was "the worst job" he knew. He still spoke of the German army as "my soldiers."

William Appears to Have Resigned Himself to New Life.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—A dispatch to the Central News from Amsterdam says William Hohenzollern, former German Emperor, took a walk this morning, accompanied by his officers. Later he went motoring, followed by a car containing Dutch officials.

The correspondent says the former Emperor appears to have resigned himself to his new life. Two enormous motor lorries arrived today with the Hohenzollern baggage, which consisted of a large number of trunks and cases.

ALLIED COUNTRIES' SENTIMENT AGAINST EX-KAISER HARDENS

Special Cable.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Sentiment in Great Britain and France is hardening against the former Kaiser securing a permanent place of refuge in Holland. No official statement is forthcoming from the British Government on the subject, but the semi-official opinion is that it would be unwise to allow the ex-Kaiser to remain in such close proximity to the German frontier.

It is believed that the former Kaiser has been interned at the castle of Count Bentinck. He is quoted as saying that the Dutch Government has requisitioned his castle to accommodate the Hohenzollerns.

In his room at the Holland Hotel, where he registered Thursday, the night before a safe was blown and robbed of $5000 in the office of the Prudential Life Insurance Co. Grand avenue and Windsor place, detectives found a blue hickory shirt, a long-barreled revolver, 41 rounds of steel-jacketed bullets and a flashlight. The prisoner had in his pockets $1375, of which there were six $100 bills. He was ordered held for the Federal authorities.

The Evening Standard says: "We shall insist as one of the conditions of peace on the punishment of the Germans in authority who committed crimes against humanity, and the laws of nations. How can we consistently condone the guilt of the arch-criminal, the Kaiser, who finds a safe asylum on the soil of a neutral neighbor?"

Wants ex-Kaiser Delivered.

"What is to prevent the escape of these other threatened men on the grounds of eternal justice as well as expediency? It is essential that the ex-Kaiser be delivered up."

The Globe says: "The Dutch cannot desire to harbor the Kaiser and his pestilential influence among themselves. We shall relieve them of much embarrassment and be doing them a real kindness if we intimate in no uncertain terms that this criminal is wanted by the police and that, with or without a warrant, they mean to have him."

U. S. GENERAL MADE PRISONER BY AMERICANS BEFORE SEDAN

Brigade Commander MacArthur Taken by Mistake When Two Divisions Became Criss-Crossed.

By the Associated Press.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—To be taken prisoner by American troops was the experience last Friday of Brigadier-General Douglas MacArthur, a brigade commander of the Forty-fourth Division. The First and Forty-second divisions were advancing rapidly that day toward Sedan and in the region of Autrecourt the lines of the two divisions became criss-crossed.

Gen. MacArthur, who was at the head of the advance of his men, was taken prisoner by soldiers of the First Division, who could not believe that any Americans were ahead of them. The situation was explained quickly and Gen. MacArthur released. He then good-naturedly went about straightening out the line and the two divisions were again fighting the Germans with full vigor. The incident did not delay the advance and by night each division had taken its objectives for the day.

"TORPEDO TOM," WITH $1375 IN POCKETS, ARRESTED HERE

"Torpedo Tom," described by the police as a "professor of explosives," whose real name is Frank Thompson, and who is listed by postoffice inspectors as an expert safe-blower, was arrested last night at Broadway and Franklin avenue.

In his room at the Holland Hotel, where he registered Thursday, the night before a safe was blown and robbed of $5000 in the office of the Prudential Life Insurance Co. Grand avenue and Windsor place, detectives found a blue hickory shirt, a long-barreled revolver, 41 rounds of steel-jacketed bullets and a flashlight. The prisoner had in his pockets $1375, of which there were six $100 bills. He was ordered held for the Federal authorities.

WOMEN SHOULD GET THIS HABIT AS WELL AS THE MEN

Don't eat bite of breakfast until you drink a glass of hot water.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with nasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—ADV.

GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE AMERICAN ARMY'S LAST DAY IN THE WAR

TROOPS GET NEWS OF TRUCE IN TRENCHES OR ON MARCH IN THE MUD

Belated Information of Abdication of Kaiser and Signing of Armistice Obtained Through Wireless Operators, Who Eagerly Stick to Posts Day and Night—All Intensely Interested in New "Scrap of Paper" That Ended Hostilities.

BY THOMAS MARVIN JOHNSON,
A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
(Copyright, 1918.)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY BEFORE SEDAN, Nov. 13.—Gripped by the most intense interest amounting almost to excitement, the American army before Sedan today received first one and then another bit of news telling of events of such stupendous moment as to seem hardly believable.

Tonight the army knows almost as much as the people at home of the Kaiser's abdication and of our happenings in Germany. It knows, too, the whole remarkable history of the terms of the armistice and of that scrap of paper which defined the end of the war, just as that other "scrap of paper" began it. And it knows how, finally, the former Emperor decided to fly.

The great news has come to our men in their newly-dug trenches looking down upon Sedan and the Meuse in rest billets that were German billets a few days ago, and while stopping along ankle deep in the mud of the roads.

Wireless Brings News.
The word of what was taking place passed from man to man and radiated swiftly from shell-torn towns, where wireless operators sat tensely at their instruments with headphones clamped to their ears.

Acting as our heralds, these operators have remained at their posts all day and all night, sifting from the welter of army orders the bits of messages that are writing history faster than it had been written in many a day.

All of the messages were in French and many came from the Eiffel tower. They had to be translated, and it was not an uncommon sight to see a group of officers about one of the messages, interrupting each other in their eagerness to piece out the great news.

As each new message arrived, early incredulity and skepticism gave way gradually to a sort of half-amused rejoicing until finally, all doubt seemingly removed, the men began to let loose with an exuberance of spirit which not even the last seven days of superhuman fighting and marching could subdue.

Such was the scene when I came to Buzancy this afternoon. Its narrow streets were filled from curb to curb with men in khaki and daubed gray with mud. They were marching between trucks, ambulances, wagons, artillery limbers and an occasional long-nosed gun crawling slowly toward the front.

In every window of the ruined houses tumbled heads were to be seen and the spectacle was that of a veritable whirlpool of an army, where all currents met. Soldiers who had been wounded walked and hobbled along with paper tags tied to their button holes.

It was such a scene as one who follows the army sees daily, but today the Americans were celebrating and the marching troops were singing and shouting and truck drivers were honking their horns.

Of course there had been a feeling in the air for days that this might be the last battle of the war and that at Sedan the American army might find the goal they had striven for so greatly in the last few days. Peace seemed so near that it appeared certain as anything humanly could be. So the soldiers were ready to celebrate when the word finally came that the armistice had been signed.

"This Yere Guerre Is Fini."
Among those who marched down the street at Buzancy today was an odd figure—a fine young American in khaki, a brightly polished German helmet set firmly upon his head. He walked with determination and when he was asked from a young man, "Where are you going, Buddy?" he replied: "Where am I going? I'm going to No. 7 Canteen. This yere guerre is fin!" All day long the air was filled with the wild acclamations of other soldiers that the "Guerre is fin!"

On last Sunday night I slept in the ruins of Grand Pre, where the men from New York first crossed the Meuse and fought in the streets. Though we could see plainly through the broken windows of one of the homes left standing, the broad, white flashes of our guns, the military police shouted in strident tones, "Put out that light," when someone lit a cigarette.

The talk among the boys was to the effect that it would be "pretty good" to be home again, and while all night long men were marching through Grand Pre in the darkness and their feet sounding a steady sloop, sloop, sloop, in the mud, every now and then some voice would cry out, "What's the news, Buddy?" and when told the inevitable comment would be, "Is that true?" Then, "Whaddy yee think of that. Then we're going home soon, aren't we?"

Silence Was Like Thunder Along Our Front Monday

By THOMAS MARVIN JOHNSON.

WITH THE AMERICAN FIRST ARMY, Monday, Nov. 11.—Amid the golden glow of the sun shining through breaking mists and casting upon the uncluttered battlefield a light that seemed like a halo, the soldiers of the American army found today the true glory of war—peace. At 11 o'clock this morning they fired their last shot, and the world's greatest war ended in the world's greatest victory.

For most of them, muddy and dog-tired in body and spirit, it came as something unnatural, almost incredible. They stood up in their trenches and cold, wet fox holes, stretched themselves, looked about in wonderment and beheld another wonder, as amidst the mist, so close often that they could be hit with a stone, other figures stood up, too, and stretched themselves. They were gray-clad figures, who were enemies and now are—what?

Today has brought many things to the world that one may not guess. But not yet are our men delirious with joy or giving themselves over to jubilation. There is cheering, and here and there some rocket flares were fired, while many a boy in khaki slapped another on the back and said: "Well, I guess the old guerre is fin!"

Peace Means "Home."
It has not yet come over them with all its force that the young lives they had taken in their hands every day are safe with all that safety to young lives means, and that there is an end of the horror unspeakable and of the weariness and hardship—that once again after four years' all's right with the world.

Once that idea does come their faces will turn in but one direction—towards home and those who love them and who sent them to fight for the world's greatest cause, and whose faces they thought never to see again. For them peace will mean but one thing—home.

What a series of unforgettable pictures these boys of ours saw on this day of days when the world laid down its arms: Pictures of No Man's Land, where men walked upright in the daylight, where men in khaki met men in gray, to swap anecdotes and laugh the strange, short laugh that men laugh whose lives have been given back to them; of a battery of guns that had poured forth death, now silent; of French towns bright with suddenly blossoming flags of red, white and blue after four years of mourning, but above all the faces of true friends as they looked at broken weapons and gaping holes in the walls. Here they sat down to dinner spread upon rough wooden tables, lighted with candles stuck in German wine bottles.

The Last Night of the War.
The officers and men were muddy, their uniforms frayed and their faces hardened by hard fighting. It was the last night of the war, and they knew it, but they talked of it briefly as they talked of the day at silent, musing before the big fireplace which was filled with big logs.

"Wonder when they'll send us home," they mused.
Then discussing the news of the turmoil in Germany, they said: "Maybe we'll have to go there to do business."
Outside the streets were filled with marching men. Among them appeared familiar faces, but many strange ones—all too many. It was the splendid "Old Sixty-ninth," marching to its last rest billets of the war, through mud and rain, as it had marched so many miles before on the march of glory. But it was a different regiment from the one that arrived in France a year ago.

In a little while the clouds passed and the moon came out, shining down brightly upon the ragged ruins of Buzancy. It would have been a perfect night for bombing, all agreed, but they agreed, too, that the Germans would not try it. They didn't try it here, but we heard that along the Meuse they had actually done it, even after the armistice had been actually signed.

Later in the evening, about a glowing fire in a stove, what a week ago the Germans had toasted their shins, we heard soldiers talking outside, saying that the war would be over the next day at 11 o'clock. They talked in a matter-of-fact way as if remarking that they would go over the top next morning, which would be a commonplace to the Forty-second Division.

Troops Cheer War's End.
As we went to sleep the troops were still sloshing through the mud in the streets outside, but the town was swathed in complete darkness. It might be the last night of the war, but no one was taking chances on an air raid. By morning everyone had heard the good news. During the night the guns had fired so heavily that it sounded like thunder. One could see their flashes in the sky and it seemed as though it had intensified rather than slackened. An officer came in early in the morning and said that the Germans had shelled the roads near Beaumont unusually heavily, but orders had come that the armistice went into effect at 11 o'clock and that all firing must cease at 10:55.

Going up the road toward the Meuse and Sedan, we passed more troops marching. This time it was another division no less famous than the Forty-second—the First Division—first in France, first to fight, and by a great chance it happened that we passed the men of the Sixteenth Infantry, of whom one company had the first fight with the Germans in a trench raid near Arras, in Lorraine, on Nov. 2, last year, when the men were killed who worked its immortalized in a monument just unveiled at Nancy.

The Sixteenth had just received the news and were cheering as men cheer who know what the war meant in agony and bloody sweat. Some of them were waving their muddy rifles high overhead. They were the only ones of our men that we actually saw cheering, but the whole regiment, some were breaking along the road and some just breaking bivouacked in shelter tents in the mud, was cheering. The Sixteenth had earned the right to cheer.

Farther down the road beyond Novart, the officers of Gen. Sumner's Fifth Corps, that broke the German center 10 days ago, were standing in front of their billets with a Sabbath air of idleness.

"We Fired the Last Shot."
Nearby was a little wood where we crouched the long, varicolored snout of a six-inch rifle, the crew of which was cleaning out the barrel. "We fired the last shot at 10:55," they said. It was Battery C of the 56th Coast Artillery, formerly at Fort R. G. Wright, New York. Lieut. Harry C. Carpenter of Norwich, N. Y., pulled the lanyard for their last shot.

Of course there will be a thousand claimants to the honor of having fired the last shot of the war for the American army. Somewhere along these roads was C Battery of the Sixth Field Artillery of the First Division, commanded by Capt. Indus McLenden of Georgia, that fired the first shot on Oct. 23 last year, when Sgt. Arch of South Bend, Ind., pulled the lanyard.

As we passed more and more guns we heard the reasons for the heavy artillery fire of the night before. It was that our guns were firing as many shells as possible so as to give the boche as much discomfort as they could before the war ended. The farther we went the stronger became the impression of what the end of the war meant. As we neared the Meuse we passed along roads strewn with debris, recently gouged with fresh shell holes, bordered by dead horses, piles of shells and wrecked trucks and wagons. Twice we passed motionless, blanketed covered figures. Everywhere were evidences that this place had been under recent heavy shell fire. Yet not a single gun sounded.

Here began proofs that it was really all over. All along this road stood our men in little groups, talking or sauntering about where a few hours before no one would have shown himself needlessly.

French Flags Appear.
In the little village of Laneuville where the red, white and black flag lay in the mud, we found ourselves amid Middle Westerners of the Eighty-ninth Division that took the wood at the turning point of the battle of Sedan.

Here, still sitting in a cellar by candle lights, was Lieut. George W. Blackington of Flint, Mich., commanding a battalion of the 35th Infantry, whose men had crossed the Meuse into Sedan before the armistice took effect. They found the Germans gone, and were pushing out patrols.

From Laneuville to Sedan was a precarious crossing, as the Germans had flooded the Meuse, turning what had been a river of a hundred odd feet in width to a series of ponds and lagoons perhaps half a mile wide, and had blown up all the bridges. So our men clambered over a series of rushing torrents on narrow planks.

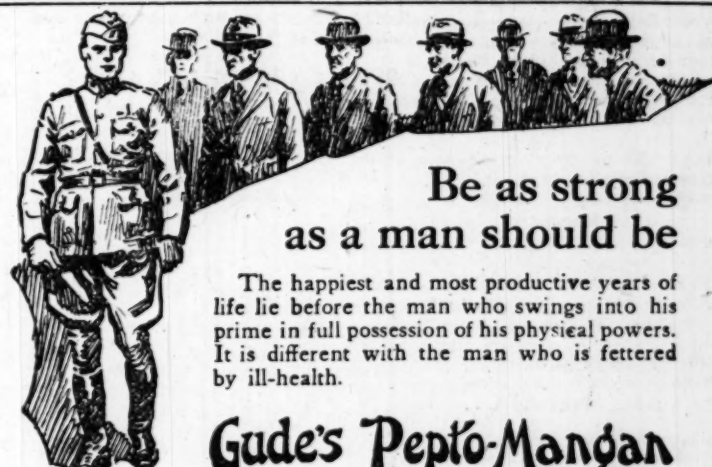

Sedan itself, as they found it, was a remarkable transformation from despair to happiness, but again incredulity was the reigning sentiment in the streets of this pretty town that the Germans had left only a few hours before.

A pitiful group of civilians, old men, women and children, unbelievably shabby, gathered about the Missouri and Kansas troops trying to understand all the wonderful things they told them—how the war was over, how the Kaiser had abdicated and the gray-clad men who had been their masters for four years were utterly before.

"Is it true?" they asked pitifully, but they had already produced a few French flags from some recesses and their tri-color floated from many windows. It was fine to see them cheering our men as they went through the town.

"A Great Day for Us All!"
Before one tiny shop stood a little French child, scarcely 4 years old, waving a hand to the splendid helmeted soldiers who were passing. One broad-shouldered man stepped from the line, took the child in his arms and held her high in the air, with an ecstatic smile, such as fathers only smile.

"I've got kids of my own," he said.

saluted passing officers; engineers still toiled with pick and shovel to undo what the artillery had done to the roads outside of Laneuville.

However, we heard the music of a band and found the musicians of the 125th Field Artillery, all Chicago men, playing "Hail to the President," and then swinging into "Keep Your Eye on the Girlie at Home."

It is a beautifully furnished place and in it had assembled a little company of the people of Sedan to be safe from the shells which the Germans told them we Americans would hurl into the town. We lunched there with American coffee and sugar given by the American Relief Committee and bread made partly of American flour and partly of German, with German cheese.

They told us how the Germans had pillaged everything before they left, as indeed we could see. Every shop and house had been smashed in outrageous fashion, quite wantonly, and the trail of the beast was left everywhere.

Two of these people were husband and wife, each more than 80 years in age, and white-haired and wrinkled. The good news was too much for them, but the old man said through his tears: "It's a great day for us all, Monsieur, a great day."

All this time the American troops in small knots were passing through the streets and deploying into a skirmish line, but nobody knew where the Germans were. It seemed that they had started for their own country already, leaving behind them on the last day of the war the last bit of France they had defiled.

The few troops left in Sedan had posted sentries with fixed bayonets on all corners and the remainder had spread to search for souvenirs, scorning the danger of "booby traps."

But there was one other soldier there, an odd, dull-looking figure in dirty gray, who shuffled aimlessly about the streets as if stunned. He was a German soldier who had stayed in Sedan, having doubtless had plenty of war. He had been made prisoner several times by various Americans who turned him loose again when they saw how harmless,ly stupid he was.

He seemed a type of the whole army he had left, completely baffled and beaten. As we left Sedan its old people and children were still standing in the streets trying to talk to the Americans—trying to comprehend what had come to them.

On the way back we saw how armies still move, although the fighting may stop. The roads were still filled with the old familiar procession of trucks and wagons and marching men; military police still

It is the heart of the world, the refuge of the war-weary people. It means rest and love and peace and quiet.

Your home is worthy, as it is, to receive again the man who has fought, the woman who has worked, because it is—just home.

But you will want to add, if you can, the charm of freshness to make the house that holds the idea of home as beautiful as you possibly can. To this end, we know we can serve you extraordinarily well and not, necessarily, expensively.

OUR DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR DECORATION is composed of real decorators, men not only trained, but experienced. And back of them is an organization that sets the most of the best for home furnishing and beautifying at their disposal.

No commission is too large for us to execute, and none too small to receive the same expert handling.

We have everything for the home. We furnish and decorate it completely without going outside our own organization, and this applies to the simplest apartment as well as the most elegant mansion.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and other disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids so they no longer cause irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—ADV.

CASUALTY LIMIT FOR U. S. PUT AT 100,000

War Department Issues Estimate—1075 Named on List for Today.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—An official estimate that the total casualties of the American expeditionary force will not exceed 100,000, including those killed in action and dying from wounds, those dying from disease and from accident, the missing and wounded, has been made today by the War Department. The total announced to date, including 1973 today, is 72,754, and the latest marine corps total is 3928, making a total announced thus far of 76,682 for both branches.

The casualties now being published occurred from three to six weeks ago, and the War Department believes it will be several weeks before the publication of the list is completed. Many casualties in the final heavy fighting of the First and Second American armies have not yet been reported. It is believed, however, that the number of deaths from disease, and from wounds already inflicted, will continue to occur.

Today's casualties are classified as follows: Killed in action, 328; died from wounds, 115; died of disease, 100; died from accident and other causes, 4; missing in action, 166; wounded severely, 72; wounded, degree undetermined, 164; wounded slightly, 126. The revised army totals are:

Killed in action . . . 13,462
Died from wounds . . . 5,174
Died of disease . . . 5,380
Died from accident and other causes . . . 1,454

Total deaths . . . 25,470

Missing in action (including prisoners) . . . 7,227

Wounded . . . 40,057

Total army casualties . . . 72,754

LLOYD GEORGE IN SPEECH DEMANDS PEACE OF JUSTICE

Nature of Settlement of War Problems Vital to Settlement of World Problems, He Tells Supporters.

STRONGLY FAVORS A LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Outlines Advanced Reconstruction Program and Obtains Pledge of Support for Coalition Government.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—"One of the principal issues at the forthcoming general election will be the nature of the peace settlement. It will mean the settlement of the world." Premier Lloyd George made this announcement in an address to his liberal supporters on Nov. 11.

"What are the principles in which that settlement is to be effected? Are we to lapse back into the old national rivalries, animosities and competitive armaments or are we to initiate the reign on earth of the Prince of Peace? It is the duty of liberalism to use its influence to insure that it shall be a reign of peace."

"What are conditions of peace? They must lead to a settlement which will be fundamentally just. No settlement that contravenes the principles of eternal justice will be a permanent one. The peace of 1871 imposed by Germany on France outraged all the principles of justice and fair play. Let us be warned by that example."

"Avoid Peace of Revenge."
"We must not allow any sense of revenge, any spirit of greed, any grasping desire to override the fundamental principles of righteousness. Vigorous attempts will be made to hector and bully the Government in an endeavor to make them depart from the strict principles of right and to satisfy some base, sordid, squalid ideas of vengeance and of avarice. We must relentlessly set our faces against that."

The mandate of this Government at the forthcoming election will mean that the British delegation to the peace congress will be in favor of a just peace.

Discussing the questions of a league of nations, the Premier said that such a league was more necessary now than ever. He pointed out that the conditions which prevailed in the Balkans before the war were now affecting practically two-thirds of Europe. He continued:

A large number of small nations have been reborn in Europe, and these will require a League of Nations to protect them against the covetousness of ambitious and grasping neighbors. In my judgment a League of Nations is absolutely essential to permanent peace. We shall go to the peace conference to guarantee that a League of Nations is a reality. I am one of those who believe that without peace we cannot have progress. A League of Nations guarantees peace and guarantees also an all-round reduction of armaments, and that reduction of armaments is a guarantee that you can get rid of conscription here.

Of course, we must have in this country an efficient army to police the empire, but I am looking forward to a condition of things, with the existence of a League of Nations, under which conscription will not be necessary in any country.

Outlines Reconstruction Policy.
At a meeting of 200 leading coalition Liberal peers and commoners yesterday, Premier Lloyd George outlined his reconstruction policy. A great rehousing program was necessary, he said, the hours of labor must be reduced, a minimum wage introduced and production increased through land reform.

The Prime Minister "so foreshadowed a large development in transport and said that there was value in the prevailing revolutionary spirit if wisely directed. He said he feared neither revolution nor Bolshevism, but he did fear reaction and dissension. He wanted a united Government representing all parties. In regard to free trade, Lloyd George said he did not propose to go as far as the Paris resolutions. The third of President Wilson's points, he contended, prevented any idea of an economic war.

Irish home rule was essential, he declared, but there must be no coercion of northeast Ulster.

The Premier said he must have the support of the Liberals.

ST. JOSEPH WITHOUT STREET CAR SERVICE DUE TO STRIKE

By the Associated Press.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 14.—About 400 employees of the St. Joseph Street Railway Co., including those in the power house and the subsidiary electric light and heating plants, went on strike this morning and not a car was moving during the early forenoon.

The strike is said to be the result of the car company's refusal to treat with employees in the light and heat plants as members of the carmen's union, when a wage increase was presented. The street railway officials insist the departments are entirely separate.

3 IN 138TH KILLED; ONE DIES OF WOUNDS

Another St. Louisan Dies of Pneumonia After 4 Days in France.

William R. Fowler, 34 years old, of G Company, 138th (St. Louis) Infantry, died Oct. 21 from a shell wound inflicted Sept. 26, the first day of the Argonne battle, according to an official telegram received today by his sister, Mrs. Olive Miller of 5233 Terry avenue. Fowler enlisted May 2, 1917, in the First Regiment, having previously been a truck driver for the Johansen Bros. Shoe Co.

Edward J. Passek of K Company, 138th, a son of Mrs. Margaret Passek of 2719A Allen avenue, was said to have been killed in action Sept. 26, in a letter from Walter Oldendorph, a member of the same company, to Oldendorph's family, of 141 Darst road, Ferguson. He wrote: "I am sorry to say that Passek was killed in action just as he went over the top." A brother, Louis C. Passek, is in France, and another brother, James, is at Jefferson Barracks. Corp. Clyde Saucier, 23, of the 138th, was killed in action Sept. 27, according to an official telegram to his sister, Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell of 1216 North Ninth street, East St. Louis. A report of his death had previously come from a letter from his brother, Sergt. Alex Saucier, also of the St. Louis regiment. The brothers formerly lived at Stanton, Mo.

Frank H. Fleming, 24, of L Company, 138th, was killed Sept. 26 in the Argonne battle. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Fleming of Doe Run, Mo., but was employed in St. Louis before enlisting. He was a brother of Mrs. W. R. Carver of 5915A Vernon avenue.

Dies Fourth Day in France.
Lionel T. Novy, 25, acting Sergeant, Company 31, September Allotment, Replacement Division, Infantry, died of lobular pneumonia and spinal meningitis, Oct. 8, four days after he had landed in France, according to a telegram received by his mother, Mrs. Esther E. Novy, 2272 South Jefferson avenue. Mrs. Novy is still clinging to the hope that an error has been made, as two friends of Novy have written home under later dates than that of the reported death, and neither has mentioned it. Novy was a proofreader.

Charles E. Newberry of F Company, 138th, has written to his wife, Mrs. Clara Newberry of 3103A Thomas street, that he was wounded severely Sept. 2.

Hubert B. Terrill, 25, of D Company, Fourth Engineers, is listed as wounded, degree undetermined. He has written to his mother, Mrs. J. S. Charlye of 1035 Theobald avenue, that he was wounded Aug. 26, and was recovering.

Sergt. Richard H. Wakeland of G Company, 138th, was wounded during the Argonne battle, he has written to his mother, who lives at 4349 Evans avenue.

John Dewey Moore of K Company, Thirtieth Infantry, has written to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore of 1448 North Eleventh street, that he was gassed Oct. 5 and was sent to a hospital. He was previously wounded with shrapnel July 27, but had recovered and returned to duty.

Missing Man Back in Ranks.
John T. Gill, 21, of D Company, 31st Infantry, who was officially reported one week ago as missing since Sept. 26, has returned to duty, and his name appears in a list of corrections sent out today by the War Department. He is a son of Mrs. Susan Gill of 940 Morrison avenue, and is a printer.

Edward Martin Cleary, 25, of H Company, Seventh Infantry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cleary, living five miles north of St. Charles, is listed today as wounded, degree undetermined. He was wounded previously July 21, and was in a hospital five weeks.

William P. Kilkeary, 22, of I Company, 131st Infantry, of 429 North Eighth street, East St. Louis, is listed as wounded, degree undetermined. A comrade from Decatur recently wrote a letter, printed in a Decatur paper, in which he said that Kilkeary went over the top July 4, killed two Germans and brought back five prisoners.

He is a former employee of the Stock Yards. His sister, Miss Elizabeth Kilkeary, lives at the Eighth street house, their mother having died Sept. 24 from heart disease. Her death was a few days after a letter from Kilkeary had come, saying he was gassed Aug. 10.

The sister believes Kilkeary has not learned of his mother's death. A brother is in the service in a Southern camp.

Here in Condensed Form Are the Details of Vandervoort's Great Sale of Player-Pianos

THIS sale is out of the ordinary—The Players included in it are high-grade, artistic instruments, yet they are being sold at a price commonly asked for instruments of much lower grade.

OUR Regular Price on these Vandervoort Players is low considering the unusual quality and features of these instruments. But because of our foresightedness in making a wonderful purchase we are able to sell a limited quantity at the special price of $498.00 each—thus saving you the difference between $498.00 and the regular price this Piano was intended to sell for.

PURCHASERS secure many advantages, such as special terms and unusual features. The terms are $25.00 cash and $12.00 monthly—each purchaser gets free of charge $12.00 music rolls, a duet bench, and our exclusive iron-clad guarantee embodying a life insurance clause, etc.

IN last night's Post-Dispatch we told you the full details of this remarkable sale, and if you have ever contemplated the purchase of a Player visit our Music Salons tomorrow and see these instruments.

Other new 88-note Players are being sold during this special sale at the extremely low price of $385. The same terms apply.

DUPED GIRL, 16, INTO BIGAMOUS MARRIAGE

Bogus Major Induced Miss Janet Woodworth of St. Louis to Marry Him in Texas.

The story of the bigamous marriage of Stephen H. Cordill, 27 years old, masquerading as a Major of the United States Army, from which he had been dishonorably discharged when a First Lieutenant, and Miss Janet Woodworth, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Woodworth of the Alanson Apartments, 5890 Delmar boulevard, was made known today by Cordill, who is held at police headquarters for the Federal authorities, and by the young woman's mother.

They met last month in Dallas, Tex., where Miss Woodworth had gone to serve as bridesmaid at the wedding of a friend, a Miss Greenberg, who was married to a soldier.

Met at a Hotel.

The marriage was at the Adolphus Hotel, and there the girl became acquainted with Cordill, who was in a Major's uniform, and who said he was on a tour of inspection of artillery, visiting the various army camps.

Cordill persuaded Miss Woodworth to marry him, not telling her that he had a wife in San Antonio. The marriage ceremony was performed Oct. 23, and the young woman notified her parents that she and her husband would be in St. Louis in a few days, after visits to two or three army camps. They arrived last Friday, and took a suite at Hotel Statler.

In the meantime, the Intelligence Department of the Army had begun an investigation of Cordill's practice of drawing an army officer's pay whenever he needed money. His method, as he now admits, was to visit an army paymaster's office, wearing the uniform and insignia of a Captain or a Major, to represent himself as detached for inspection duty, and to draw a month's pay. It is estimated that he drew $1500 or more in this manner.

As he used no name but his own in his travels, it was not difficult to trace him, and the St. Louis Intelligence Office of the Army arranged for his arrest at the Statler Tuesday night. The girl, who was prostrated by the revelation that Cordill was an imposter, was taken to Hotel Jefferson, where she has since been in a physician's care.

Was Dishonorably Discharged.

Cordill admitted, after his arrest, that he was dishonorably discharged from the army last July, because of dissipation, in Hoboken, N. J. He was a First Lieutenant before his discharge, and he kept his uniform and bought the insignia which enabled him to pose as a Captain and a Major. He said he was separated from his lawful wife, whom he married last year, and who was Zelma Savage, an actress. She is in San Antonio, he said. He is from Winsboro, La., and says he is a graduate of the University of Louisiana.

Cordill is held on the charge of wearing an army uniform without authority. This charge, it was said today, will take precedence of a possible charge of bigamy. A prosecution for bigamy would have to take place in Dallas, and the young bride would have to appear as a witness. Mrs. Woodworth said today that she could not say what the family would decide to do, as her husband was absent. She said the family had suspected nothing, and had taken no part in bringing about Cordill's arrest. They had liked his appearance, she said, though they had been sorry that their daughter married when so young.

Word to this effect was received in a telegram today by Melville L. Wilkinson, chairman of the Local Council of Defense, from Frank M. Robinson, secretary of the Missouri Council of Defense. Wilkinson sent a copy of the telegram to Director of Public Safety McKelvey.

The new order applies to application for building permits previously rejected, also to all work begun before Sept. 3 and substantially completed. McKelvey said that the telegram meant that the construction work described may proceed with the mere issuance of the regular building permit, which was in vogue before the National Council of Defense ordered the curtailment of building activities.

RED CROSS OPENS 2 BRANCHES FOR SOLDIER CHRISTMAS GIFTS

The Red Cross today opened two additional stations for the collection of funds to supply 10,000 friendless soldiers overseas with Christmas gifts. The main office is at headquarters, 1012 Frisco Building, with branches at the main Postoffice, Eighteenth and Walnut streets, and the downtown postoffice, Ninth and Olive streets.

Only three days remain for raising funds for the boxes, which cost $1.50 each. Each box contains hard candy, cigarettes, games and handkerchiefs. The boxes are packed and shipped by the Red Cross and must be on their way by Nov. 20.

No contributions of articles of any kind will be accepted, but individuals may purchase any number of boxes. The name and address of the donor will be placed on each box.

MARRYING RICHES, HE SAYS, STARTED TROUBLE

Man Held Also Blames Himself for Taking Vacation From 2-Hour-a-Day Job.

Edward L. Dee, 25 years old, of Peru, Ill., who is held by the St. Louis police on a telegram from the Chief of Police of Peru saying that he is wanted on a charge of obtaining stocks and bonds by false pretenses, told a Post-Dispatch reporter today that his troubles started when he married a rich widow much older than himself, and culminated when he took his first vacation from a two-hour-a-day job.

Dee was arrested yesterday afternoon at the office of Mark C. Steinberg & Co., brokers, in the Boatmen's Bank Building, when he was trying to sell a share of the Wright National Airplane Co. When he was searched after his arrest it was found he had certificates for 150 shares of this stock, 68 shares of the Curtiss Airplane Co., 25 shares of the Anglo-American Oil Co. and 20 shares of stock in a submarine building company, all with a face value of $5000. He was well dressed and wore an expensive fur-collared overcoat.

Tells of His Romance.

"I was chauffeur for the secretary of a big zinc company," Dee said in the holdover. "He died in 1911, leaving $500,000 to his widow. I married the widow in 1914. I am 25 and she is 42.

"She made me quit work as chauffeur and insisted that I stay around the house all the time. She said she didn't want me out of her sight.

"I got tired of doing nothing and asked her to let me work. She refused at first but finally permitted me to take a job as purchasing agent for the zinc company, but she insisted that I must work only two hours a day.

"I got tired of that, too, and I wanted a vacation, but I couldn't afford it because she wouldn't give me any spending money.

"Last Saturday she went to the bank and took out a lot of stock certificates. She said she wanted to look over her own stocks and see how much money she would lose if peace was declared.

City News in Brief

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE DR. R. H. LINT, PASTOR OF Bowman, Shuck, Robinson, North Grand avenue has received an appointment to do war work abroad for the Y. M. C. A. He is to report for duty Nov. 18, at New York.

POLICE ITEMS

MRS. MARY BRINKMAN, 4746 SOUTH Broadway, used the heavy end of a broken billiard cue to beat a burglar whom she caught trying to force a window on the floor of her home last night. He had broken the shutters and was trying to enter when she swung the cue through the glass and onto his head. He fled.

IRA CRAWFORD, A JEWELER, 4327 Clayton avenue, and Lawrence Rabold, 1234 Clark avenue, were locked up early today after a policeman had found Rabold searching Crawford's pockets. Crawford, who had attempted to play the good Samaritan to Rabold, whom he found sleeping in a doorway, had accused him of being responsible for the disappearance of $110. He was looking for the money when the policeman came up. The officer found an empty purse on the sidewalk, half block away. It was identified by Rabold.

THE HOME OF MRS. HORACE BANKS, 6054 Pershing avenue, was robbed by a burglar in his absence yesterday. Jewelry valued at $200 was taken. The apartments of Mrs. Theodore Brandt, 1225 Hickstone avenue, and Mrs. Mary Winton, 3029 Rutledge avenue, were robbed in a similar fashion. Jewelry valued at $100 being taken from each.

MISCELLANEOUS

ELMER MEYER, 11, 3701 McDONALD avenue, crossing Grand avenue at Humphrey street yesterday evening, was struck by an automobile driven by James Pellman of Webster Groves, suffering a fractured leg and internal injuries. A woman, driving an automobile, struck Max Bonkers, 10 years old, of 1220 South Eighteenth street, while the boy was playing in the street in front of his home in the afternoon. The boy suffered internal injuries and cuts and bruises.

FIRE SUPPOSED TO HAVE STARTED from crossed electric wires destroyed the home of Charles Sampson, 3029 Rutledge avenue, last night. The loss was about $2500.

FRANK SCHWARTZ, 13 YEARS OLD, 3426 Bluff avenue, trying to avoid pigeons with a rifle in the railroad yards at Hall and Bremen streets yesterday, accidentally wounded Thomas Carroll, 51, 3801 North Broadway. The bullet struck Carroll in the jaw.

B. W. HOPKINS, 3747 SOUTH JEFFERSON avenue, motorman on a south-bound Broadway car, was injured seriously, and Edward Uhlenhuth, 40, a passenger, 4509 Bluff avenue, was cut and bruised last night when the car crashed into the rear end of another car at Broadway and Bluff street. Hopkins was buried in the wreckage of the vestibule. He told the police the brakes and reverse lever failed to stop his car.

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIVE men in Company A, Student Army Training Corps at Washington University, have contributed $1172 to the United Way. Work campaign, a generous contribution. The men are paid $1 a day by the Government.

WORK ON THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS' College building in Sarnan Park at King's Highway and Easton streets, was continued yesterday. The building is being carried forward with the idea of completing it before the winter. The City of St. Louis has contributed $100,000 to the project. The Christian Brothers are building a hospital for wounded soldiers in the same building.

FRANK B. GIBSON YESTERDAY SUPPLEMENTED the conditional permit to erect a crematorium at Theresa and Locust avenues after he had been told by the Public Health Department that the permit was refused. The crematorium could not be erected because of objections of property owners of the neighborhood.

CLARENCE JUNIOR, 802 Locust avenue, and Edward Harker, 1225 San Francisco avenue, members of the Salvage Corps, were burned after the head and arms last night when a chemical tank exploded while they were trying to extinguish a fire in the automobile owned by George Roberts, 4318 Olive street, caused by "black-drinking" in front of 610 Washington avenue.

Quintessence of a Post-Dispatch "What's" column are being made effective: every day.

THE COCA-COLA COMPANY
ATLANTA, GA.SALOON KEEPER KILLED
BY MASKED ROBBERSCustomer Shot at 1935 North
Broadway by Pair Who Flee
in Auto When Woman Screams.

Albert Chandler, 35 years old, was shot and killed in his saloon at 1935 North Broadway last night by one of two masked men who entered the place at 9:15 o'clock and commanded him to throw up his hands. John J. Kuntz of 1931 Market street, a customer, was shot in the back and seriously wounded. He is at the city hospital.

Though robbery is believed to have been the motive, the men were scared away by a woman's screams and got nothing. They fled in an automobile.

John Woelfer of 930 Tyler street and Benjamin Ross of 932 Tyler street told policemen they were in the saloon when two men, each wearing a blue handkerchief for a mask, walked in, one at the front door and the other at the side door.

Scared by Woman's Screams.
The man at the front door pointed a revolver at Chandler and said, "Hold up your hands." Immediately after this, they said, both intruders opened fire and Chandler and Kuntz fell. Woelfer and Ross said seven shots were fired.

Mrs. Walter Thompson, with whom Chandler boarded on the second floor, heard the shots and ran downstairs screaming and crying. "What's the matter?" This apparently scared the men away.

Roy Johnson, 16 years old, told policemen he was on the sidewalk when the men ran out. He said they were joined outside by a third man, who ran with them to a point a short distance south of the saloon where an Overland automobile stood with its engine running. A fourth man was in the automobile. The three men jumped in the machine, which went south a block and turned west. Johnson did not get the license number.

Third Murder This Month.
On Chandler's body policemen found $152 in cash and a loaded revolver. There was no indication that he had used the weapon after the intruders entered.

This is the third unsolved murder since Nov. 1 in St. Louis. Mrs. Genevieve Riedl was beaten to death and robbed in her home at 4255 North Twentieth street, Nov. 2. Edward Rosenkranz, proprietor of a saloon at 2900 Easton avenue, was shot and killed near Warne avenue and Lucky street the night of Nov. 7. In each case the murderer escaped.

GIRL IN AUTO CHASES THIEF
BUT HE ESCAPES POLICEMANRuns Into Car Shed, Drops Part of Loot and Then Disappears.

Miss Janice Cohen, 415 Clara avenue, jumped in her automobile and chased a burglar last evening after he had held up her and her mother, Mrs. Daisy Cohen, in their home, backing out a rear door while he covered them with a pistol. They had returned home and found the robber ransacking it.

Miss Cohen pursued in her machine to Waterman and De Ballviere avenues, where she picked up Patrolman Sullivan. They chased the thief to the De Ballviere sheds of the United Railways, into which he ran. The policeman jumped out of the machine and chased the man on foot.

When in the car sheds the burglar divested himself of his overcoat, pistol and jewelry valued at $500, taken from the Cohen apartment, but escaped with $25, nine War Savings Certificates and $200 worth of jewelry.

When the mother and daughter discovered the burglar in their home he attempted to hide in a pantry. The mother pulled him out of the hiding place and attempted to hold him while the daughter telephoned for the police. At this juncture he drew the revolver and compelled the two to stand with arms raised while he escaped.

FREDERICK HERE LAST NIGHT

Former Assessor Passed Through St.
Louis on First Night of Freedom.

A. H. Frederick, former City Assessor and more lately president-elect of the Board of Aldermen, passed through St. Louis last night, his first night of freedom in three years and a half. He was released at noon yesterday from the penitentiary in Jefferson City, on a sick parole, after having served about one-half of the time which he would have been required to serve, under the two-thirds rule, on a 10-year sentence for forgery, in connection with the sale of fraudulent deeds of trust.

Frederick is to make his home with his son-in-law, H. P. Hunter, in Milwaukee, and must make reports to Gov. Gardner, who has the power to return him to prison if he recovers his health or violates the terms of his parole by future criminal acts.

ARE YOU A
FIGHTER?Or, Are You a Fatalist?
Let Every Citizen Fight Disease.
Never Surrender.The Big Gun of Defense Is Cadomene Tablets—Tonic.

What class suffered most from the epidemic of influenza? Authorities everywhere agree that those in a temporary state of "low vitality" made up the major portion of fatalities.

If you are a fatalist, you will not believe in preparedness, but if you are a "fighter" you will see the wisdom of keeping your body and nervous system strong, so that disease will not find fertile soil in which to carry on its ravages.

Medicine rightly used at the right time is like the "Big Guns in War." If your vitality is low, you "catch cold" all too readily, you are weak, nervous and ailing with aches and pains of unknown origin, you tire easily and are irritable and often sleepless at night; digestion is faulty, liver and bowels irregular, appetite feeble and you never feel bright and happy as you once did. Strange tremors seize you, memory seems failing and many of the joys of life are denied you, through lack of energy and ambition.

Three grain Cadomene Tablets were formulated by a brilliant medical man, just for the treatment and restoration to health of those who suffer as perhaps you do.

Millions of packages have been sold in the past few years, and your druggist can supply you, and help you fight disease conditions.—ADV.

HOW
BEGINS

The excruciating agonies of rheumatism are usually the result of failure of the kidneys to expel poisons from the system. In a majority of cases rheumatism is an indication that uric acid has overloaded the system. If the irritation of these uric acid crystals is allowed to continue, interstitial bladder or kidney disease may result. Attend to it at once. Don't resort to temporary relief. The sick kidneys must be restored to health by the use of some purifying remedy, which will prevent a return of the disease. Get some GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. They are a standard world-famous medicine in use for over seven hundred years. They have brought back the joys of life to countless thousands of sufferers from rheumatism, lame back, lumbago, sciatica, gall stones, gravel and other afflictions of the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder and allied organs. They will attack the poisons at once, clear out the kidneys, and the soothing healing oils and herbs will restore the inflamed tissues and organs to normal health. GOLD MEDAL is the original Haarlem Oil imported direct from the Haarlem laboratories in Haarlem, Holland, by the genuine Haarlem Oil Mfg. Co., Haarlem, Holland. American office, 118 Beekman street, N. Y.

All others are imitations. Ask for GOLD MEDAL and be sure the name GOLD MEDAL is on the box. Three sizes, at all good druggists.—ADV.

NEW PREVENTIVE FOR INFLUENZA DISCOVERED

Georgia College Professor Discovers Deadly Enemy to Influenza Germ—First Used It to Protect Own Family. Just a Few Drops Inhaled From Pocket Handkerchief Disinfects Nose and Throat.

A NEW preventive treatment for Spanish Influenza, called Wilson's Solution, has just been placed on the market and is now on sale by leading druggists in St. Louis. The formula was perfected by Professor Robert C. Wilson, head of the department of pharmacy at one of the leading educational institutions of the country, and is composed of the most powerful antiseptics and germicides known to science. All that is necessary is to inhale the vapors from a few drops on the handkerchief. The odor, although very penetrating, is not unpleasant, and has a very soothing effect on the respiratory organs.

On account of Professor Wilson's high standing as a man of learning, thousands of people in his home city began using the preparation as soon as it became known that he had perfected the formula without any advertising whatever. In only a few days' time the nearby towns and cities began clamoring for it, and Professor Wilson was forced to begin its manufacture upon an extensive scale.

Professor Wilson first made the preparation to use in his own family and gave a small quantity of it to one of his neighbors. The neighbor told others, and in only a short time the news spread rapidly over the city. On the third day alone one retail druggist sold over five hundred bottles. Leading physicians, specialists and bacteriologists give the preparation their unqualified indorsement.

'WHY MARRY?' MIGHT BE: 'WHY NOT MARRY?'

Prize Comedy Sparkles With Wit, But Doesn't Answer Own Question.

BY RICHARD L. STOKES.
CONSIDERED merely as diversion, "Why Marry," the three-act comedy by Jesse Lynch Williams which was presented last night at the Shubert-Edison Theater, is a smart tour de force of wit and paradox which, if somewhat tarnished by time, still keeps much of its scintillancy. It has a plot that will serve two and a half characters that are more than lay figures, and a skillful situation or so. It is true that the central incident itself is so unconvincingly motivated as to leave a gap in the construction through which horses and chairs might drive. But it has literary charm, shrewd touches of observation, and acute but good-natured thrusts of satire upon American social institutions.

A few quotations will afford a savor of the lines. "It takes more than a clergyman to make a real marriage" is true and important but scarcely novel. "Attracting men is one thing; holding them is another" is the redressing of a principle from the lore that all women know. Reminiscence echoes in such epigrams as "Falling in love with someone else is not the cause of unhappy marriage, but the result, and 'Marriage'—the one thing that we all try to enter, avoid or escape." "What marriage has put asunder divorce has joined together," exclaims the old Judge. "Contrary to my opinion, your wife, having departed for Reno to seek a decree, wishes that she is returning to him after all." The Magistrate whose name is Uncle Everett; Theodore, a clergyman, and John and Lucy, a married couple, discuss the jurist's matrimonial affairs at the beginning of the play, in this wise:

Sample of Dialogue.
Theodore: But, Uncle Everett, hasn't Aunt Julia always been a good wife to you?
Judge: Quite so, Theodore, quite so. A good wife, a good mother to your children?
Theodore: Yes, John, a true old-fashioned wife.
Judge: Yes, John, a true old-fashioned wife.
Theodore: She has been a great help in the parish work, Uncle Everett.
Judge: An earnest worker in the vineyard, Theodore. In fact I might say model female.
All three: Then why, why do you want a divorce?
Judge (calmly): Because, damn it, I don't like her.
Lucy: But think of poor Aunt Julia!
Judge: But, damn it, she doesn't like me.

With these quotations the play might be dismissed with encomiums as an entertainment. But it was the winner of the $1000 Pulitzer prize offered by Columbia University for the best play by an American produced in New York in 1917. It is also a comedy with a purpose and supposedly with a moral—the exposure of wrongs in the economic, theological and especially matrimonial conventions. Therefore, it is entitled to a closer examination.

A Play of Five Pairs.
We find that it deals with the relations of five couples. The Judge and his wife, after 25 years of reciprocal boredom, have resolved on emancipation through the courts. John is the old-fashioned domestic tyrant who brutally permits his wife unlimited charge accounts, but declines to entrust her with cash. Theodore is an impecunious clergyman, whom marriage has punished with debts, six children and a sick wife. Jean is a young girl, trained for no career save marriage, and driven against her will to union with a fast and rich youth, although she loves another. Her sister, Helen, representing the "new woman," will not marry Dr. Ernest Hamilton, a scientist, because she fears that with his small salary she would destroy his career.

It is no doubt deplorable that a man and woman should weary of each other after a quarter of a century of life together. It is unfortunate that some husbands are bullies, though the author's gallantry prevented him from pointing out that some wives are termagants. It is lamentable that clergymen and scientists are sometimes underpaid, while judges who serve big business roll in wealth. It is discreditable that so many girls have no training by which they may support themselves, and are thus reduced to economic dependence upon men. But these appear to be individual cases, with little or no bearing upon the merits or demerits of marriage as an institution.

We have left the instance of Helen and Dr. Hamilton, and soon find that here, too, no case is made, and is only half-heartedly attempted, against matrimony itself. There is no rebellion against marriage as a convention, such as that of Shelley and Mary Godwin. The difficulty from the first is economic, is financial. The scientist's salary is small, the girl has no money. They cannot afford to be married. But with the expense be reduced if, as they resolve and announce their intention of doing, they go away to Paris and live together without benefit of clergy?

Married Willy-Nilly, at Last.
This fatal question propounds the great flaw in the play. It is true that towards the end Helen and Ernest feel some revulsion against the hypocrisy of the pairs about them. But one felt like calling out to the perverse couple: "Why NOT Marry?" and thanked Uncle Everett when, in his capacity of Supreme Court Judge, he asked the necessary questions, received the requisite answers before witnesses, and willy-nilly pronounced them man and wife much to their surprise and also relief.

The two roles which are most animate are those of the Judge, cynical, humorous and sentimental, who plays sometimes the part of a Greek chorus, commenting shrewdly on the action about him, and some superior airs. Times that of a "god from the machine," who sets everything right; congenial part to the perennial Nat and the role of John, who, starting Goodwin, Edmund Breeze was captured as the villain, is so belabored that as John, Lotis Robb has a sweet with denunciations and epithets that and mobile face, the intelligence of her rather wins one's sympathy. His which is suitable to the part of the wife, Lucy, is galvanized into life by the laboratory expert. The other parts Dr. Hamilton comes dangerously well taken and the play as a close to a scientific prig, with his whole was excellently performed.

One in Four of Our Men Called for Draft Examination Was Physically Deficient

CITY PHYSICIAN STRONGLY ADVISES ALL PERSONS TO HAVE BLOOD EXAMINATIONS MADE BY FAMILY DOCTOR—SAYS THOUSANDS SUFFER FROM IRON DEFICIENCY

And think it's "overwork," "too much worry," "a case of nerves," or some other trouble. Ordinary Nuxated Iron will increase the strength and endurance of such folks in two weeks' time in many instances.

In General Crowder's report to Congress, he stated that twenty-nine per cent of the men called for physical examination were physically deficient; that is, more than one out of four of our men was sick and unfit for the service. The number of our men who are physically deficient is a very large one. It is a fact that the majority of our men are physically deficient. It is a fact that the majority of our men are physically deficient. It is a fact that the majority of our men are physically deficient.

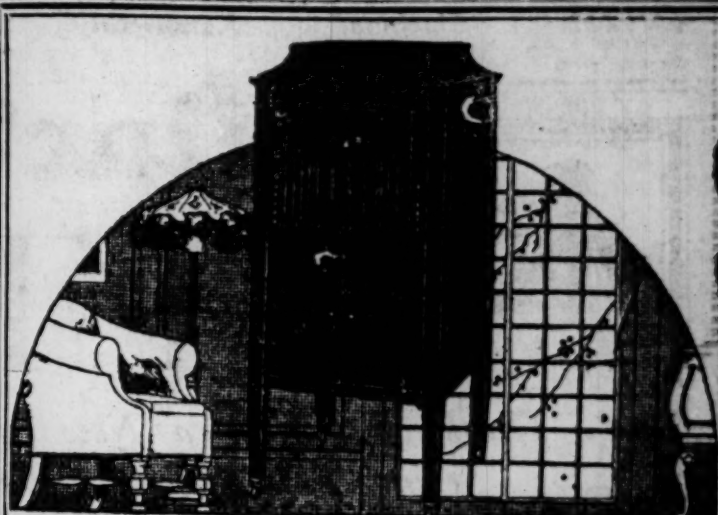

Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital.

Dr. Sullivan says: "One-fourth of the people are sick—not so to the normal health mark as shown by general Crowder's report. I strongly advise everyone who feels weak, nervous or who has a general opinion, run down at times to go to their family physician and have a blood examination made. Thousands suffer from iron deficiency and do not know it. In my opinion there is nothing like organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to help give increased strength and energy to the weak, run-down and aged."

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron which is used by Dr. Sullivan and others with such surprising results and which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians, is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated and does not irritate the stomach, make them black nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and money-back results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in this city by Judge & Dolph Drug Co., Wolf-Wilson Drug Co., Endette Drug Co., Kellner Drug Co., Johnson Bros. Drug Co., Paulier's Drug Store Co. and all other druggists.

Dr. Gen. F. Baker, formerly Physician and Surgeon in Monmouth Memorial Hospital of New Jersey, says: "During convalescence from SPANISH INFLUENZA (La Grippe) I find Nuxated Iron to be of great benefit."

Walk-Over SHOES

These Are Days of So Many More Steps

Here is a shoe to help women. It has been called "The Army Shoe for American Women." But army shoes can't have the graceful lines of shoes designed for the smaller feet of women. We prefer to call it an occupation-shoe—a get-things-done shoe, aidful to our volunteer women-workers in the numerous ways they keep busy for their country.

It has a restful street-arch, an attractive toe, and a military heel. A serviceable heel makes every step less tiring in these days of so many more steps. Let us show you how well it looks on your foot.

The name Walk-Over means good shoes the world over.

ONE OF THE WORKERS AT NEW ALLIES' SHOP

Mrs. Thomas P. Haley

CANTEEN WOMEN OF Y. M. C. A. SELL STAMPS

Are on Duty at "The Little White House"—Still Much Work to Do.

YESTERDAY and today at "The Little White House" the members of the Y. M. C. A. Canteen Service at the Y. M. C. A. "Hut" were in charge of the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps, and so far a very successful sale has been reported. There are 217 members of this branch of war service, and even though peace has been declared, there is still as much work, if not more, in store for the canteen, for as soon as the demobilization starts many troops will be passing through St. Louis, and it is just as important to look after their welfare upon their return as it is when they were en route to the fighting line.

Some of those who were on duty yesterday under the direction of Mrs. Charles Cummings Collins, who is head of the canteen, were Mrs. Grace Wilson Clark, F. B. Menner, George Tracy, J. O. King, George Dock, Roy Gunnison, Lee Landau, J. P. Schlarf, E. Y. L. Eason, Mortimer Burroughs, Rankin, Misses Rose McRae, Mary Virginia Collins, Ruth Leggat, Nancy Surridge, Mary Roll, Prudence and Ruth Palfrey, Frances Ewens, Katherine Brajeur, Clara Bryan and Marceline Alexander.

Among those on duty today were Misses Herman Stifel, W. L. R. Gifford, Wallace Capen, Otto Schubert, Jr., Adolphus Busch III, Hector McRae, George Merrill, Louis Harris, Julius Boyer, Joseph Gettys, Herbert Cost, Will d'Arcy, Misses Mary D. Jones, Naomi Walsh, Sunie Smith, Emily Isaacs, Elsie Waldron, Helen Kuhn, Gayle Anderson, Mary and Hannah Bemis, Janet Stern, Hattie Scherer, Eleanor and Mildred Barry, Miriam McMahon, Marie Bacon and a number of others.

Social Items

Mrs. Thomas P. Haley of 9 Lenox place is chairman of the Millinery Department of the Allies' Shop which is to be opened Saturday under the auspices of the American Fund for French Wounded and the Junior League. Assisting Mrs. Haley are Misses Arthur G. Francis, George Hoffman, Shep Smith, John Cabanne, Robert Smith, Martin Lamert, H. G. Hurd, Otto Overbeck, Robert Walsh, Edgar Rozier, William Leftwich Sr. Over $100 worth of hats have already been sold and this department promises to be one of the interesting features of the shop.

Mrs. Herbert L. Parker of 39 Washington terrace accompanied her daughter, Mrs. William Scott Sneed, upon her return to her home in Montclair, N. J., last Friday, after a several weeks' visit in St. Louis. Mrs. Parker expects to return tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Niedringhaus of 79 Vandeventer place returned last night from a short visit to New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clafin Allen of 3127 Westminster place have had as their guests their son and his wife, Capt. and Mrs. C. C. Allen Jr., who arrived from Fort Sill, where Capt. Allen has been stationed. He was en route for overseas duty.

Mrs. Elmer E. Adams of 25 Westmoreland place has returned from the east where she spent the summer at Woodstock, Vt., later going to New York City for a visit.

Mr. Mailer's classes in dancing will open Thursday, Friday and Saturday.—Adv.

Mrs. William Oscar Doerr, formerly Miss Dorothy May Gould, has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gould of 4520 McMillan avenue. She departed Monday for New York to join her husband, Kenneth Doerr, who just returned from overseas. They are at New Brighton, Staten Island, N. Y.

Members of the Woman's Alliance, Church of the Unity, will resume their work tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

General Strike Planned in Vienna. By the Associated Press. COPENHAGEN, Wednesday, Nov. 13.—A general strike was arranged for Monday at Vienna, according to a dispatch from that city. One of the features was to be a great demonstration in front of the Parliament Building, where the national convention was sitting.

Stop Itching Eczema

Never mind how often you have tried and failed, you can stop itching, itching eczema quickly by applying a little zemo furnished by any druggist for 35c. Extra large bottle, $1.00. Healing begins the moment zemo is applied. In a short time usually every trace of eczema, tetter, pimples, rash, blackheads and similar skin diseases will be removed.

For clearing the skin and making it vigorously healthy, always use zemo, the penetrating, antiseptic liquid. It is not a greasy salve and it does not stain. When others fail it is the one dependable treatment for skin troubles of all kinds. The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

$5000 SUIT RESULTS FROM HALTING BURIAL OF WOMAN

Dispute Arose During Interment Over Ownership of Plot in S.S. Peter and Paul's Cemetery.

Mrs. Katherine Koerper, 1330 Grand avenue, and the S.S. Peter and Paul's Cemetery Association were sued yesterday by Mrs. Koerper's four nephews and a niece for $5000 damages, alleging that they were subjected to pain and anguish by reason of the defendants interfering with the burial of their mother, Mrs. Kressentia Koerper, 4037A North Broadway, who died Aug. 23.

The latter was the widow of Lorenz Koerper, whose deceased brother, Frank, was the husband of Mrs. Katherine Koerper.

After the casket had been lowered, it is alleged, ceremonies were halted by the foreman of the gravediggers of the defendant association, who notified the plaintiffs that Mrs. Katherine Koerper had objected to interment being made in the lot where the grave was dug. Permission was finally granted, the petition recites, to let the casket remain and to cover the grave with boards on which to place floral tributes. Later the body was interred in a vault and on Sept. 4 was interred in the grave originally made for it.

The plaintiffs, who are Philip, Frank, Jacob and Henry Koerper and Mrs. Wilhelmina de Moor, say that the cemetery lot formerly belonged to their father.

CHILDREN EXCLUDED FROM TRIAL

Irving Morgan Tells of Pushing Wife Out Train Window.

SHELBYVILLE, Mo., Nov. 14.—After the judge had ordered children and high school students out of the courtroom and told the women present it might be prudent to retire, Irving Morgan went on the stand late yesterday to tell of the night when he shoved his wife from a car window of a speeding train.

He told a story of alleged unfaithfulness on his wife's part. "In a moment of madness I choked her, then gave her the death push," he said.

BOULDER FOR WEBSTER GROVES

Plan to Have War Monument in Public Park.

Definite plans for the erection of a boulder in the Webster Groves City Park, near the municipal flagpole, in honor of the Webster men and women who have served their country in the world war and as a memorial to those who have given their lives in service, will be made Tuesday at a meeting of the Webster Groves Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, at the home of Mrs. S. Kleinschmidt, regent.

Three Webster Groves men were killed in France, according to a member of the chapter, and several hundred are in the army.

MRS. SAGE'S WILL DISPOSES
OF $50,000,000 ESTATE

Largest Bequest Is One of $8,000,000 to Her Brother. Many Institutions Are Remembered.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The will of Mrs. Margaret Olivia Sage, widow of Russell Sage, filed for probate yesterday, disposed of an estate valued at about $50,000,000. Of this, $8,000,000 is bequeathed to her brother, Joseph Stocum.

Bequests to public institutions are both specific and residuary, some 60 being made in sums ranging from $10,000 to $125,000, and also in the form of 52 equal parts of her residuary estate. The largest specific gift to any institution is $125,000 to the Association for Relief of Respectable Aged Indigent Females in this city.

To the Northfield schools, Middlebury College, Rutgers College, Syracuse University and Hampton Institute specific bequests of $100,000 each are left, the same amount also being given to the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. in New York City.

In the residuary legacies the largest goes to the Russell Sage Foundation, which received seven parts of the residuary estate. Syracuse University is left two parts, as also are the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the American Museum of Natural History.

Among educational institutions bequeathed one part each are Yale, Princeton, Dartmouth, Amherst, Williams, Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Vassar, Smith and Wellesley.

FEAR GERMAN SITUATION MAY LEAD TO BOLSHEVISM

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 14.—A note of deep anxiety lest the situation in Germany degenerate into Bolshevism, is struck by editorials in the London newspapers.

President Wilson's "timely counsel" is hailed as a masterpiece of editorial approval and his warning that hunger leads to madness is quoted as touching a vital chord. It is admitted by newspapers of all shades of political opinion that Germany must be fed, if only as a business proposition, inasmuch as if she starved to death she could not pay what she owes.

The Times, remarking that the combination of hunger and revolution is highly perilous, says common humanity and common sense alike compel the feeding of Germany.

CHILDREN HATE
PILLS, CALOMEL OR NASTY CASTOR OIL

Give Fruit Laxative when cross, bilious, feverish or constipated.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels. Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them. With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them. If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clear the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grownups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by California Fig Syrup Company. Refuse any other kind with contempt.—ADV.

ARE YOU "GRIPPY," THIN, RUN-DOWN?

Acid Iron Mineral Will Put New Life Into You—Build Up Your Weakened System Caused by Influenza, Etc.

Thousands of men and women, some who are young in years, but old in actions and feelings, just drug themselves around because their system is run down from lack of enough iron, the one great body building mineral necessary for a healthy glowing man or woman. Acid Iron Mineral contains just the right amount of iron needed to make the system do its work rightly and efficiently—it is a compound made from iron ore highly concentrated, and the one that is able to get relief from vegetable compounds should try this famous remedy for run-down systems, influenza, kidney troubles, catarrh of the stomach and countless other diseases that are sapping their life away. It is absolutely free from alcohol and other injurious drugs, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money will be refunded. Thousands of testimonials now on file in our offices, telling in a emphatic way how Acid Iron Mineral has helped sick and suffering men and women. (A. I. MEANING OF "ABDICATION."

"Say, Bill, did ya ever look up that word 'abdicate' in the dictionary?"
"Yeh. For instance, it's sunthin' like this: If you get your pay stopped, ya quit. If ya get fired, ya hand in yer resignation. But if I push you off that there girder, then ye'd abdicate."

Willing to Try It Again.
ONCE when John D. Rockefeller was playing golf a negro lad crossed the links. Mr. Rockefeller had just given the ball a vigorous stroke, and the lad received the missile squarely on the head. It was a heavy blow, but it only stunned the boy a little, and after blinking his eyes for a moment he was himself again.
Mr. Rockefeller, who had rushed up, fearing that the boy had been badly injured, was relieved to find that he took it so calmly, and, pulling a $5 bill from his pocket, he gave it to the youngster as a salve for his feelings.
The boy looked at the bill and grinned with delight. Then he looked at Mr. Rockefeller and inquired:
